UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

8 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,) No. CR18-174 RAJ
9 Plaintiff,)
10 v.) ORDER CONTINUING TRIAL DATE
11 VICTOR ANTONIO ALVAREZ HARO,) AND PRETRIAL MOTIONS DEADLINE 12 BULMARO MAGANA MARTINEZ, and)
13 JESUS PALOMARES-MENDEZ,)
14 Defendants.)
15

16 This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Victor Antonio Alvarez Haro's
17 Stipulation to Motion to Continue Trial (Dkt. #160), Defendant Jesus Palomares Mendez's and 18 the government's Stipulated Motion to Continue Trial (Dkt. #188), and Defendant Bulmaro
19 Magana Martinez's Notice of Joinder in Stipulated Motion to Continue Trial (Dkt. #190), to 20 continue the trial in this matter, and to set a new pretrial motion cutoff consistent with that new 21 trial date. Having considered the motions, Defendants' waivers of speedy trial, and the files
22 and records herein, the Court finds and rules as follows:

23 The facts supporting continuing the trial and excluding the consequent delay are set 24 forth in the pleadings referenced above, incorporated by this reference, and include the 25 following: (a) the large number of defendants charged; (b) the nature of the prosecution, which 26 includes wiretaps over multiple phone lines and investigations in numerous districts; and (c)
the volume of discovery produced, and still to be produced.

27 THIS COURT FINDS, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section
28 3161(h)(7)(B)(i) and (ii) that this case is sufficiently unusual and complex, due to the 29 combination of the number of defendants, the nature of the prosecution, as well as the

1 existence of novel questions of fact, that it is unreasonable to expect adequate preparation by 2 the parties for pretrial proceedings or for the trial itself by the current trial date, or for the immediate future.

3 THE COURT THEREFORE FINDS that failure to grant the continuance in this case
4 would likely make the continuation of this matter impossible and result in a miscarriage of 5 justice, because failing to continue this matter for a considerable period of time would deny
6 counsel for the parties the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, due to defense
7 counsels' need for more time to review the considerable volume of discovery and evidence 8 produced, and still to be produced, and to consider possible defenses and motions, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

9 THE COURT FINDS, in light of these factors, that it is unlikely that the parties can be 10 reasonably ready to try this matter before March 4, 2019, at the earliest.

11 THIS COURT FINDS, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(6)
12 and (7), that this is a reasonable period of delay in that the Defendants have indicated they 13 require more time to prepare for trial. The Court finds that given the complexity of the case, 14 the number of defendants, and the volume of discovery produced, and still to be produced, that more time is, in fact, necessary.

15 THIS COURT FINDS, therefore, that pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, 16 Sections 3161(h)(6) and 3161(h)(7), the ends of justice will best be served by a continuance,
17 and that they outweigh the interests of the public and the Defendants in a speedy trial.

18 THIS COURT FURTHER FINDS that all of the additional time requested between the date of this order and the new trial date of March 4, 2019, is necessary to provide counsel for 19 the Defendants the reasonable time necessary to prepare for trial.

20 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the trial date is continued as to Defendants 21 Victor Antonio Alvarez Haro, Bulmaro Magana Martinez, and Jesus Palomares Mendez until 22 March 4, 2019 at 9:00 a.m.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all pretrial motions, including motions in limine,
24 shall be filed no later than January 17, 2019.

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the time between the date of this order and the new
2 trial date of March 4, 2019, is excluded in computing the time within which a trial must be held
3 pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161, et seq.

4 DATED this 9th day of November, 2018.
